IN RESPONSE TO DR. JOE REEDS' LETTER:

Dr. Joe L. Reed is a political legend in the State of Alabama. As Blacks, we have as much political representation as we do because of Dr. Joe L. Reed's advocacy and activism.

Dr. Joe Reed has a valid concern about the congressional district two candidates whom conservative organizations are heavily financing. This is important because, as Black people, we have had to be culturally paranoid to survive. In addition, we have had to fight for everything we have.

For many years, we have had too many politicians who have walked a tightrope between our adversaries, money, and popularity. In this process, we tend to receive ineffective Ken representation.

In far too many cases, we have had political representation that suffers from what Paulo Freire called cultural invasion in his book, "The Pedagogy of the Oppressed." To paraphrase Freire, he says cultural invasion occurs when the enemy's mind gets in your mind and is stronger than your mind. As a result, you fight against the people who are fighting for you. This is similar to what the South African Freedom Fighter Steve Biko said, "The greatest weapon in the hands of the oppressor is the mind of the oppressed."

That is why sometimes the most vicious enemy Black people have to fight looks like them. This is the case with Clarence Thomas, Ben Carson, and Tim Scott. Every Black person in America should be ashamed of Tim Scott's buffoonery on national television when he told Donald Trump, "I just love you." I have witnessed Anthony

Daniels work in our community. However, Shomar Figures also has the potential to be an excellent congressman. We need a congressman to serve our people with dignity. We have been sold out too often and too long. We need a member of Congress who knows who they ought to be fight ing for and who they ough to be fighting against. Keep the Faith,

The other candidate, Anthony Daniels, the current Democratic Minority Leader in the Alabama House of Representatives, has received untold amounts of dollars from other Republicans, adding to the situation's complexity.

In comments given to 1819 News late Saturday, Daniels rejected Reed's efforts after the primaries."Bless their hearts, I am not going to waste one ounce of my time on their desperate attempt to distract voters before Tuesday's election," Daniels said. Instead, I am focusing my attention on winning this race with the full support of the people in District 2 so I can go to Washington and deliver on eliminating the federal tax on overtime for hourly workers and creating good-paying jobs for District 2.'

In response to these developments, Daniels reiterated his commitment to the campaign, vowing to remain focused on the issues affecting District 2 and dismissing Reed's allegations as a distraction from voters' real

Each new revelation raises the stakes, leaving voters to ponder the true motivations behind the candidates vying for their support. In the closing letter to the Alabama Democratic Party chairman Dr. Kelley, Joe Reed urged the party to consider the implications of the reported Republican funding strongly. Randy Kelley, Chairman of the Alabama Democratic Party FROM: Joe L. Reed Chairman, Alabama Democratic Conference

March 1, 2024 DATE:

Mr. Chairman:

I just read two disturbing articles which revealed some very disturbing facts that show the Republican Party's efforts to buy the Congressional seat in District 2 by contributing untold and unimaginable amounts of dark dollars to at least two candidates seeking the Democratic nomination in the March 5 Alabama Democratic Primary.

According to the reports, Protect Progress, a conservative group, has donated 1.7 million dollars to Shomari ite, Anthony L cratic ivinority L Representative, has received untold amounts of dollars from other Republicans, many who live in Alabama. The veracity of these claims is beyond doubt because the candidates themselves made the reports. [Attachments]

The Democratic Party should not stand idly by and let the crooks, thugs, and thieves steal the election from us. The United States Supreme Court ordered Alabama's Legislature to draw a District that Blacks could win. It certainly did not order that there be drawn a district for Republicans to buy or steal or for Blacks to sell!

For the reasons cited above, the Democratic Party needs to consider whether or not these two candidates can continue to run as Democrats. Our bylaws give the Party the right to determine whether a candidate is qualified to represent the Party in November. I do not believe that, if by chance, either one or both can win the election in November. We need to elect a candidate who is unbought and unbossed, and who can win. The candidate who comes in second never takes the oath.

It is imperative that this matter be addressed forthwith. If we cannot finalize this question before the election, we need to address it immediately after the election and, if possible, prior to certification if by chance either one, or both, makes the run-off.

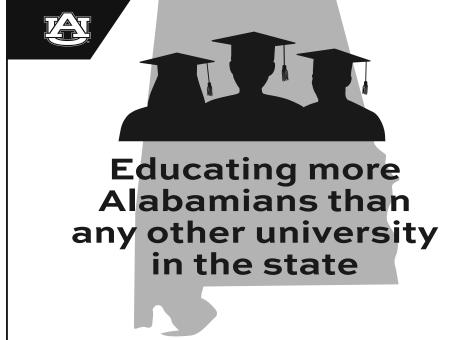

This report should be frightening and alarming to every citizen in Alabama and every Democratic voter in the

It would be a crime, indeed, against humanity for Black folks in Alabama to have a chance of electing a Black Congressional candidate and we yield to greed, trickery, excuses, and lose the seat.

The Alabama Democratic Party owes it to the people of Alabama, in general, and the Democratic Party voters, in particular, to expose this political shenanigan. [The Republicans cannot buy this election without buying the people whose campaigns they are funding]. I have been telling all who will listen for the last 50 years that you cannot send a lunch by a hungry boy. He will eat it!

There is a serious question as to whether these candidates should be allowed to continue to run as Democrats.

Corruption triumphs when good people do nothing. It is time to act!
